Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease.

While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage.

It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

BEST OF ALL DESSERTS.

Recipe for Pumpkin Pie That Will Please Everybody.

A good pumpkin-pie recipe is as follows: Steam the pumpkin until soft, dry and rub through a sieve. Add one and a half teaspoonfuls of brown sugar to a cupful and a half of pumpkin; two eggs, beaten slightly; one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful of ginger and a little salt, one and a half cupfuls of milk and a half-cupful of cream. Bake until golden brown in a pan lined with rich pastry.

Little pies of oyster or chicken or mushrooms are preferred by many entertaining housekeepers in place of the big pies. Pimientos give a spicy novelty. Either make or buy at the caterer's puff-paste cases and fill them with this mixture: One can of pimientos, drained and cut into small pieces, mixed with an equal proportion of fresh mushrooms, fried lightly in butter and added to a thickened sauce made up for cream sauce, but with chicken stock used instead of the usual milk. Fill the cases, and top with whipped cream and a touch of currant jelly.

The Home.

Water kept in bottles on the ice, instead of breaking the ice into the water, reduces ice bills.

Growing parsley, sage and other herbs in a kitchen window garden gives better seasoning at less money.

To bake pancakes without greasing the griddle, add one tablespoonful of butter or a half-cup of cream to the batter.

If your soup is found too salty add a few slices of raw potatoes and cook a little longer. The potato will absorb the surplus salt.

Paraffine used on the tops of preserve glasses can be saved until the next season by washing in cold water and putting in a tin box with a tight lid.

To extract juice of lemon or orange much more juice will be obtained if the fruit is first covered with cold water and allowed to come to a boil before the fruit is cut.

Japanned trays should never be touched with hot water, for it will cause the varnish to crack and peel off. To clean these trays, rub a little olive oil on and then polish it off with a flannel.

When broiling steaks in the gas oven put water in the pan beneath the broiler. It catches all grease which, when cold, can be skimmed off. This keeps the oven clean and saves labor in cleaning the pan.

English Bath Buns.

Sift one quart of flour into bowl, add one-half teaspoon salt. Make hole in center and break in four eggs, then add three-quarters cup lukewarm milk in which dissolve one yeast cake and one-half cup butter. Mix thoroughly with spoon and set aside to rise in a warm place 1½ hours. When light, turn out on floured board and sprinkle with five tablespoons sugar and three tablespoons chopped almonds, and work them into the mass by drawing the tips of fingers lightly and quickly through the dough. Do not knead. Then drop by spoonfuls half-inch apart into greased pans. Let rise ten minutes. Bake in hot oven. This makes two dozen. Process takes about two hours and 15 minutes.

Beef Curry.

Coarsely chop one large or two small onions and fry them slowly in two tablespoonfuls of butter until nicely colored; add one teaspoonful of curry powder and cook for three minutes, then one pound of raw beef from any lean part; stir until brown, add one tablespoonful of flour, mix well and brown, then stir in gradually one cupful of stock or gravy. Bring to the boiling point, add the juice of a sour orange and two tablespoonfuls of apple sauce or one small tart apple chopped fine. Simmer until the meat is very tender and serve with a dish of plain boiled rice.

Gingered Pears.

This is particularly nice served with ice cream or marmalade. To eight pounds of pears chopped very thin allow four pounds or less of sugar, one cupful of water, the juice and thin yellow rind of four lemons (be sure they are not bitter) and one-eighth pound or more of green ginger root, scraped and cut in thin slices. Bring the sugar and water to a boil, add the fruit, ginger and lemon, then simmer three-quarters of an hour or until the consistency of marmalade.

Amber Drops.

Pare and remove seeds, cut in small cubes, and steam till easily pierced with a straw. Make a syrup of lemons, a pound and a half of sugar to a pint of juice. Allow one lemon to a pint of the cooked melon. Add to the syrup and cook slowly, stirring often, until it will drop from the point of a spoon. It should be like a marmalade when cool. This is something new and should be clear as amber.

Prevent Grape Juice Fermenting.

To keep grape juice after bottling, lay each bottle down on its side in a drawer or box and in this way keeping the corks moist with the juice. This prevents the air from getting in, as the corks never shrink, and it will never spoil.

Window Ledges.

The men helpers of a household would not dream to look up at night if they always felt sure that the ledges and locks of the windows were kept clean with a damp cloth.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

In the Probate Court of Lafayette County, Missouri, Admorsed November 17, 1905, 5th day Monday December 1st 1905. Estate of Henry Dierker, deceased.

Now at this day come John H. Dierker, Administrator of the Estate of Henry Dierker, deceased, and presents his petition praying for an order for the sale of so much of the real estate of said Henry Dierker, as will pay and satisfy the remaining debts due by said estate and yet unpaid for want of sufficient assets, accompanied by the accounts, lists and inventories required by law in such cases.

On examination whereof it is ordered that all persons interested in said estate be notified that application as aforesaid has been made, and that unless the contrary be shown on or before the first day of the next term of this Court, to be held on the second Monday in February 1906 an order will be made for the sale of the whole or so much of the real estate of said Henry Dierker as will be sufficient for the payment of said debts.

And it is further ordered that all of the heirs of said deceased, residents of said Lafayette County, be personally served with notice of these proceedings according to law.

And it is further ordered that this notice be published in the INTELLIGENCER a newspaper published in said county, for two weeks successively before the commencement of the next term of this Court.

A true copy. Attest: THOMAS A. WALKER, Probate Judge.

Where is Your Hair?

In your comb? Why so? Is not the head a much better place for it? Better keep what is left where it belongs! Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, quickly stops falling hair. There is not a particle of doubt about it. We speak very positively about this, for we know.

Does not change the color of the hair.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 9

The Doctor Whose Patients Hang On

By Herbert Kaufman.

Out in China all things are not topsy turvy. Physicians are paid for keeping people well and when their patients fall ill their weekly salary check is stopped. The Chinese judge a medical man not by the number of years he lives, but by the length of time his clients survive.

An advertising medium must be judged in the same way. The fact that it has age to its credit isn't so important as the age of its advertising patronage. Whenever a newspaper continues to display the store talk of the same establishment year after year, it's a pretty sure sign that the merchant has made money out of that newspaper, because no publication can continue to be a losing investment to its customers over a stretch of time without the fact being discovered. And when a newspaper is able to boast of an honor roll of stores that have continued to appear in its pages for a stretch of decades it has proven its superiority as plainly as a mountain peak which rises above its fellows.

The combination of stability and progress is the strongest virtue that a newspaper can possess. Only the fit survive—reputation is a difficult thing to get and a harder thing to hold—it takes merit to earn it and character to maintain it. There is a vast difference between fame and notoriety, and just as much difference between a famous newspaper and a notorious one.

Just as a manufacturer is always eager to install his choicest stocks in a store which has earned the respect of the community, just so a retailer should be anxious to insert his name in a newspaper which has earned the respect of its readers. The manufacturer feels that he will receive a square deal from a store which has age to its credit. He can expect as much from a newspaper which is a credit to its age!

The newspaper which outlives the rest does so because it was best fitted to—it had to earn the confidence of its readers—and keep it. It had to be a better newspaper than any other, and better newspapers go to the homes of better buyers. Every bit of its circulation has the element of quality and staying power. And it is the respectable, home-loving element of every community—not the touts and the gamblers—toward which the merchant must look for his business vertebrae—he cannot find buyers unless he uses the newspaper that enters their homes. And when he does enter their homes he must not confuse the sheet that comes in the back gate with the newspaper that is delivered at the front door.
